

the men and women who did LA their way

LA unconventional

from the pages of the

Los Angeles Times'

Then & Now column

by Cecilia Rasmussen

foreword by Kevin Starr, California State Librarian

LA unconventional

the men and women who did LA their way

by Cecilia Rasmussen

Johnny Stompanato, left, and Mickey Cohen. Story on page 48.

Pancho Barnes and Amelia Earhart. Story on page 17.

"In L.A. Unconventional, Cecilia Rasmussen slices through our city's history to capture the essence of L.A.—a place where diversity in people, in tastes and in style reigns supreme."

—Richard J. Riordan,
Mayor of Los Angeles

"In L.A. Unconventional, Cecilia Rasmussen deftly sketches profiles of the forgotten personalities and overlooked events which helped shape Los Angeles. This is a journey into local history one will enjoy and remember."

—Gloria Ricci Lothrop, W.P. Whitsett Professor of California History,
California State University
Northridge

"Anyone who thinks history has to be dull should read this collection of real stories from L.A.'s colorful past. Cecilia has creatively put together a fascinating series of historical vignettes about a number of our city's most interesting and unique characters."

—Huell Howser,
Producer/Host of "California
Gold" on KCET-TV

Krishna Venta. Story on page 110.

ISBN 1-883792-23-1

9 781883 792237

Los Angeles Times